

Heidi Kromrei, PhD
President, Board of Directors

Heidi Kromrei, Ph.D. is the Designated Institutional Official and Director of Medical Education at St. Joseph Mercy Oakland Hospital in Pontiac Michigan. Prior to joining St. Joseph Mercy Oakland, Dr. Kromrei was the Assistant Dean of Learning and Teaching in the Office of Medical Education at Wayne State University School of Medicine.

Dr. Kromrei previously served as the Associate Designated Institutional Official, Director of Medical Education for Osteopathic Programs, and Assistant Vice President for Academic Affairs at the Detroit Medical Center. She, along with the DMC designated institutional officer, was responsible for monitoring and oversight of the accreditation and educational activities of the DMC's more than 100 residency and fellowship programs, as well as oversight of the Michigan State University College of Osteopathic Medicine Medical Student Education at the DMC.

Dr. Kromrei received her doctoral degree in philosophy from Wayne State University in the Department of Education, Division of Administration and Organizational Development. She holds a bachelor's degree in psychology from the University of Illinois at Chicago and a master of arts in Education degree from the University of Michigan-Dearborn. Dr. Kromrei is a volunteer Adjunct Associate Professor of Ophthalmology, Visual and Anatomical Sciences at Wayne State University School of Medicine and Clinical Instructor at Michigan State University College of Osteopathic Medicine.

Before entering the field of medical education, Dr. Kromrei spent 14 years working in health and behavior research at the University of Illinois in Chicago, the University of Michigan and the Henry Ford Health System. Her research interests include performance measurement and management in organizational systems, program evaluation and reducing evaluation biases.