

Southeast Michigan
Center for Medical Education

2021 – 2022 HOT TOPICS LECTURE SERIES

Upcoming Events:

Virtual Event

Post COVID-19: A Way Forward

Presented by Phillip D. Levy, MD, MPH, FAHA, FACC

Edward S. Thomas Endowed Professor of Emergency Medicine and Assistant Vice President
for Translational Science and Clinical Research Innovation – Wayne State University
Chief Innovation Officer – Wayne Health

December 1, 2021 | 12PM – 1PM | CLICK HERE TO REGISTER

Virtual Event

Vaccine Hesitancy Among Healthcare Providers

Presented by Matthew Sims, MD, PhD, FACP, FIDSA

Director of Infectious Diseases Research for Beaumont Health
Professor, Department of Internal Medicine and Foundation Medical Studies at
Oakland University William Beaumont School of Medicine

January 26, 2022 | 12PM – 1PM | CLICK HERE TO REGISTER

PAST EVENTS:

Virtual Event

Kinks and Quirks of Research During Covid

Presented by Matthew Sims, MD, PhD, FACP, FIDSA

Director of Infectious Diseases Research for Beaumont Health

Professor, Department of Internal Medicine and Foundation Medical Studies at
Oakland University William Beaumont School of Medicine

November 17, 2021 | 12PM – 1PM | Zoom Recording

Virtual Event

Lessons Learned and Remembered from COVID-19

Presented by Phillip D. Levy, MD, MPH, FAHA, FACC

Edward S. Thomas Endowed Professor of Emergency Medicine and Assistant Vice President
for Translational Science and Clinical Research Innovation – Wayne State University
Chief Innovation Officer – Wayne Health

November 3, 2021 | 12PM – 1PM | Zoom Recording

Virtual Event

Vaccine Hesitancy in Wayne County: Understanding Key Drivers Across Diverse Communities

Presented by William Nowling

October 1, 2021 | 12PM – 1PM | Zoom Recording