44th Annual Research Forum

SEMCME is grateful to all residents participating and for your continued efforts during the pandemic. We believe it is important to acknowledge the full scope of the work you do and so we are pleased to be able to hold this virtual competition.

Forum Details

Purpose

To recognize outstanding research by residents and highlight the importance of research as a component of the graduate medical education training experience.

Methods

This year, there will be two opportunities for residents to present at the virtual 44th Annual Research Forum:

- Voice-over PowerPoint Presentation (VOPP) – A prerecorded voice-over PowerPoint presentation uploaded to YouTube;
- Live Stream Slide Presentation (LSSP) – A selected number of research projects to be presented at the virtual Research Forum on May 25, 2022.

Judging

The criteria used to judge both the VOPP competition and the LSSP competition focus on four areas:

- Introduction and Background
- Methodology
- Discussion and Interpretation
- Presentation

More detailed criteria appear on the score sheet. Research experts from SE Michigan universities and hospitals will judge both competitions.

Eligibility Requirements for Residents

The abstracts presented at the Research Forum are the best of those presented at research day competitions in the SEMCME member institutions. Residents in good standing in member institution programs are eligible to present research abstracts in the Forum. Fellows are not eligible to participate in the Forum.

Each full member SEMCME institution may submit one abstract for the live stream slide presentation AND up to three abstracts for the voice-over competition uploaded to YouTube. Program Member and Associate SEMCME Member hospitals are also eligible to participate in the Forum. They may submit the one paper from each department (specialty) that coincides with their SEMCME membership. This will be in the form of a YouTube voice-over slide presentation. Case reports will not be accepted.

General Participation Requirements

Program Directors whose residents are presenting in the Forum will be responsible for assuring the following:

Faculty sponsors or other staff members may not substitute for resident presenters
- In accordance with the ethical guidelines of major medical journals such as Academic Medicine and the New England Journal of Medicine, it is not appropriate for a person who did not participate in the project to accept credit for the work and to compete in the 2022 SEMCME Research Forum
- The work presented by the resident may be based on prior inquiry, but the majority of the project must have been done in the current training program. The resident can only make one presentation in each year. The resident may compete in more than one year during his/her training and is eligible to win a prize in each year of participation. The resident may report on a single topic in successive years, but each succeeding presentation should reflect a substantial difference from the previous presentation(s)
