

Timothy J. Hannon, MD, MBA

Dr. Hannon is a board certified anesthesiologist with over 20 years experience leading large-scale transformation initiatives to improve the safety, quality and efficiency of healthcare across the nation. He holds an MD from Indiana University, an MBA from Butler University, and a Graduate Certificate in Patient Safety from the University of Illinois Chicago. Dr. Hannon is also a retired Navy Captain who served 30 years that included two tours as a Flight Surgeon. Dr. Hannon has lectured extensively and has published several peer-reviewed articles, book chapters and editorials related to perioperative blood management, orthopedic blood management, guideline implementation and blood management economics.

Dr. Hannon is also a healthcare entrepreneur who founded Strategic Healthcare Group, an organization that partnered with large healthcare systems to rapidly and sustainably improve transfusion practices, resulting in almost 400,000 blood products saved and total healthcare cost savings approaching $600 million. In 2017, Dr. Hannon founded Healthcare Forward, an organization committed to advancing High Value Care. As CEO of Healthcare Forward, Dr. Hannon brings a wealth of experience and expertise to bridge the gap between the current volume-based, provider centric healthcare system and a future system that is value-based and patient centered.
