

Amber Lebowski, MHA

Amber Lebowski, MHA is the Database Coordinator for the Detroit Medical Center GME office. Amber leads the DMC GME efforts to identify and manage relevant database opportunities including those related to New Innovations Residency Management Suite. Ms. Lebowski is responsible for the development of numerous system level innovations for data management at in DMC GME highlights of which include the development of Program Coordinator training programs in New Innovations; implementation of a variety of new protocols and templates for improving evaluation practices at both the system and program levels; and improvements to current practices such as monitoring reporting of faculty member certification information. Amber also led the DMC Accreditation team efforts in preparing for the most recent ACGME CLER visit in 2016. Amber's research interests include utilization of high level data management practices for system level monitoring and oversight of GME programs, identifying Program Coordinator performance deficits and aligning improvement efforts to improve outcomes, and efficacy.

Ambers received her Bachelor Degree in Health Services from Western Michigan University and her Master Degree in Health Administration from Eastern Michigan University.